

The corporate teambuilding event doesn't have to be a day of stilted conversation around the boardroom table or worse still, paintballing.

At Studio 3 Arts we use our extensive experience of arts and communication to create bespoke team events that facilitate easy conversation, offer creative challenges and allow the whole team to engage.

We've all had experience of uncomfortable training courses or awaydays, led by a facilitator who doesn't understand our business, or who expects us to sing or play drums or some other equally embarrassing idea.

That's not how we do things at Studio 3 Arts. We'll spend time with you and your team before the day to understand your specific objectives and develop a programme of creative and stimulating ways to achieve these objectives.

We have worked with a range of clients from blue chip companies to charities and local authority departments, and have developed awaydays and teambuilding solutions for Directors/Trustees, leadership teams, whole organisations and support staff.

Our rates are flexible and take into account charitable status/turnover. Please contact us with an idea of your budget and we'll go from there.

Awaydays can take place at our studios in Barking, East London, or at your organisation/choice of venue. If you choose to have your event at our studios, we can provide a full catering service.

Lastly, we are a charity that provides arts opportunities for disadvantaged and isolated people in East London. By choosing Studio 3 Arts to deliver your awayday you are making a direct financial contribution to our charitable objectives. More information about our work in the community can be found on our website.
